News

March is here! Since St. Patrick's Day is right around the corner, I thought I would focus on Irish ancestry. Many of us have ancestors who came from Ireland. During times of hardship, immigrants came to the United States, looking for a better life.

Searching for Irish genealogy resources can be tricky. I've found some interesting resources that might help.

My wild Irish Roots...

Most of my ancestry is from France and Germany, but I do have a few Irish ancestors. William Haire, Thomas McEvoy, William Daisley and Peter Sparling on my father's side, immigrating to New England via Canada. And Thomas Black, James Mahan, John McClelland and Alexander Caldwell, all on my mom's side, crossing the Atlantic to Virginia and settling into the south.

Famous Relatives

I've added some links for checking out your connections to famous people. But they may not be as accurate as you think. Always do your own research! The info you find can be helpful clues.
